Senator Daniel.

Very rarely, and only when some deep stirring moves it, editor, does the New York "Sun" double-lead its editorial opinions. Last week, commenting on the candidacy of Senator Daniel, of Virginia, it was moved to the unusual method of calling public attention to the man, and particularly to Virginia's political opportunity. The editorial has attracted more attention in the North than any utterance recently made about Presidential possibilities.

The senior Senator from Virginia authorize or even connive at the use of his name in connection with the Democratic nomination next year all question of Mr. Bryan would be permanently at rest. To say that Virginians respect and admire Mr. Daniel is to put the case inadequately. The truth is that the feeling is something far deeper and more possessing than if it were based upon the familiar ground of affectionate confidence and esteem. John W. Daniel has not only won the implicit faith and the unqualified admiration of his people, but he has also so appealed to their sentiment and imagination as to occupy a position wholly his own.

"His services to the State, rendered at a time and under circumstances that tried men's souls, made brilliant and memorable chapters in the history of the proud old Commonwealth. He made his record on veritable battlefields, when the stakes meant more than a hundred parties, and when it involved the honor, fame and perhaps the social status of Virginia, the peace, the freedom and the repose of a generation. Virginians remember their debt to him. Gratitude has been bequeathed to them along with the liberties and the opportunities he did so much to win for them; and as they see him now, growing old in their service and poorer as regards this world's goods than he was the day he made his first appearance in the Senate, their hearts go out to him with a fervor unimpaired and with a warmth which neither time nor change will ever moderate. It has but to say the word and Virginia Democrats will rally to his standard responsive to an instant impulse.

"Meanwhile there is no imaginable danger that Virginia will be led away after the false gods of socialism. The State has had its experience of dabbling with rail road ownership and bears the burden of a public debt today by way of grim reminder. Mr. Bryan made no adherents among intelligent Virginians with his Madison Square idea for bitterness and sorrow, condemning them that their and objectlesson was worth more for wisdom than all his easy academic oratory.

"Even though Mr. Bryan should suddenly eschew his heresies, recall bygone mischief and pipe his sweetest music to the keynote of Virginia's loudest creeds, he would still be as nothing in comparison with John W. Daniel, who is loved and honored throughout the Commonwealth for what he has done, what he is, and what he may be counted on to be under any conceivable conditions. Mr. Bryan may tickle their ears, but John Daniel holds their hearts, and their heart stills cuts a figure at the South."

The trial of Judge Loving for the killing of young Estes will take place in Halifax County on June 24th, and Judge Barksdale will preside. The motion for a change of venue was bitterly opposed and the bitterness of Mr. Whitehead, the Commonwealth's Attorney for Nelson, evidently had much to do with it. No attorney for the Commonwealth should ever become a partisan, and if he can not refrain from assuming such an attitude he should retire from the case. The Commonwealth demands a fair trial, not a frenzied one.

Notice.

EDITOR A. & B. TIMES.—Please give me space in your columns to give notice to one and all who are interested, or by any honorable means may be induced to become interested, of the time and place of the annual meeting for the year 1907 at The Tabernacle in Buckingham county. I desire to give this public notice of this important meeting; that the pastors of the several churches of the several denominations of the county may make their appointments so as not to conflict with this meeting. The meeting this year is to begin on the 18th to 28th inclusive. Eve y member of every denomination is most cordially invited to attend these meetings. I care not what the faith of my may be, he will have a welcome extended him at these meetings. We may not agree upon all lines but there is one great fundamental doctrine that will bring and has ever been, promulgated at these meetings that is calculated to do any one good "as it doth the upright in heart."

A. C. GARNETT, JR.

(From the Charlotte Gazette, May 23, 1907.)

Chase City, Va., May 20th, '07.

Editor of Gazette:—Thos. W. Scott has announced himself a candidate for nomination of Senator from the 18th Senatorial district of Virginia.

Of the original companies that went from Chase City in the early days of '61, I am the only living Captain Scott when a mere boy, enlisted in my company at Wyliesburg. He was a faithful and gallant soldier; his wounds testify to this fact, and since the war a true man and citizen in all the relations of life.

I watched his course when he served in the Senate, and he was alive and vigilant in representing the people of his district. His votes and purpose were for their best interests.

I trust my old comrades will give him their cordial support. He is deserving it and will show that their confidence and honor will not be misplaced.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

NATURE'S GREAT BLOOD TONIC
Piedmont-Bedford Concentrated Iron & Alum Water
(Representing the Famous Bedford Alum & Iron Springs of Va.)

contains 17 of the most powerful Mineral Tonics.

An 18-oz. bottle contains all the minerals in a barrel of the average water. We furnish the minerals, you furnish the water.

We have certificates both from the public and from eminent physicians, telling of its virtue in Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, a large variety of Female Diseases, Chronic Diarrhoea and Dysentery, General Debility, Anaemia, Malaria, Ulceration of the Throat, Diabetes, Piles, Chronic Eczema, Nervousness, Chronic Constipation, and many showing the wonderful cures in that dreadful disease, Scrofula.

DR. T. L. KABLER for fifteen years a resident at the Springs, says: For Scrofula, that fearful destroyer of human health and happiness, we have in this water a remedy which neither science nor fortunate accident has hitherto found an equal. It is in this malady, and some forms of secondary and tertiary Syphilis, that this water when carried to its full alterative effect, displays its highest curative powers. In all forms of diseases peculiar to females, this water will be found to exert a curative influence second to none in Virginia.

I have given your Concentrated Water a fair trial, and by this please are I have been greatly benefited. For some years I have suffered more or less with Indigestion, followed by Constipation and other attendant ills. Within the past two months I have found such relief from your remedy that I have improved in strength and weight; have eaten what I have dared to do for a long time, and have done harder work than I have been able to do before for years.

REV. OSCAR LITTLETON,
Presiding Elder, Lynchburg, Va.

Since 1894 I have been afflicted with Chronic Diarrhoea. About six months ago I commenced using your Concentrated Iron and Alum Water with the most wonderful and satisfactory results. For three or four years past I have been deprived of the privilege of visiting friends or going to church, as my trouble kept me in constant apprehension, having lost almost entirely the control of my bowels; but now I am happy to state that after using about a half dozen bottles of your remedy I am entirely cured, and having used any for the last four months. I can confidently and most gladly recommend your remedy for Chronic Diarrhoea.

CAPT. RUFUS AMIS, Virginia, Va.

I was an intense sufferer for some months with Indigestion, and could get no relief from the ordinary remedies. During the month of January I sent from one of your dealers to a lady, with the understanding that if it did not at once improve her digestive apparatus, I would pay the bill. Strange she not only willingly paid the bill, but needed part of one-half dozen more bottles, and has since been cured of a long and annoying Stomach Trouble. This seems to be the case with all who try it.

He fills the pulpit of Old Concord on the morning of the 2nd and 3rd Sabbaths of the month and on the afternoon of the 1st and 4th Sabbaths.

Friends of the Blackstone Institute do not think thirteen to be an unlucky number. The thirteenth session of the school has just closed and it was the most prosperous in the history of the school in every way. The enrollment was 391, the largest in the history of the school. The senior class numbered fifty, the largest in the history of the school. Gifts to the institution have amounted to nearly $45,000, the largest in the history of the school in any one year. The religious work has greatly prospered. During the year the Institute in union with the Blackstone Church has sent out its own representative to work in the mission field of Japan. These facts clearly demonstrate that there is nothing in the unlucky number thirteen superstition except the imagination of the observer.

Death of Mrs. Clementine Portwood Bloxton.

Died of kidney disease at her home near Reedy Spring Church, in this county, on June 10th, 1907, at 11:30 p. m., Mrs. Clementine Portwood Bloxton, wife of C. B. Bloxton. She had been confined to her room for several months previous to her death. Mrs. Bloxton has been a constant member of the Baptist Church ever since he girlhood, and was a daughter of the Rev. George Portwood, who died soon after the close of the war between the States, and is survived by four sons, and two daughters as follows, Rev. F. E. Bloxton, of the Wilmington Conference, M. E. Church North; Walter A. Bloxton, Roanoke, Va.; J. W. Bloxton, Greensboro, N. C.; Benjamin Bloxton, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Cora DeShazo, Leaksville, N. C., and Miss Ella Bloxton, Covington, Va., and three sisters, Mrs. Elvira Dawson, Mr. M. A. Jennings and Mrs. L. V. Woodson. The burial services will take place at Reedy Spring Church, Wednesday evening, June 12th, at 2 o'clock. The pall bearers were, Dr. D. Mott Robertson, A. H. Thompson, Geo. W. Cheatham, W. B. Marshall, J. H. Morris and Hubbard Cheatham.

Death of an Infant.

The peaceful and quiet happy home of Mr. W. B. Woodson, Concord's most prominent merchant, was overshadowed with a gloom of sadness when last Saturday night God sent his harvest Angel and called home the borrowed jewel, his little 20 months old, unnamed infant boy. The little child was taken with the measles a week or more ago and a few days ago the whooping cough was added and he sweetly passed away at 9:30 o'clock. The mother and father had no idea that so great a grief and trouble was knocking at the door, and when the sad and heartbreaking news was borne them, that motherly love which no one has yet fathomed broke forth in screams of grief. The great Arch-angle touched his little heart with death, and soared away to Heaven's Chancery where he may nestle in the arms of Jesus, who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

The night before the burial and before the coffin had arrived, was a night of experience never to be forgotten. As the weeping parents entered the room and walked to the bedside in which the child lay cold in death, the mother placed her loving arms around his chilled body and cried, "The last night in mama's bed" and kissed his cold lips saying, "Good-night my darling."

The little one was just in the age of infancy when youth is the most attract e, just able to walk around and te l mother its innocent wants. Not many hours before he passed away, he raised in mother's arm and kissed her; who knows but that God whispered to him, "Kiss mother fo se in 1865. He left this county good-bye" before he lay down to sleep to awake no more in this world of sin and sorrow, but to bloom forth in the bosom of Jesus.

This is the second child Mr. Woodson has lost in infancy. Six precious jewels were loaned him and two have been called home, leaving four. The remains were quietly laid to rest in the family burying ground at 11 o'clock Monday. A. M., services being conducted by Rev. W. B. Jett. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Richard Cross, Mott Brooks, Will Akers and Wiley Brooks; they were followed by Masters Holt Staples and Terry Brooks, Misses Carrie and Lovine Staples, as the bore the beautiful collection of flowers that covered the grave.

Rough Creek.

I have just finished reading the letters of your good paper, and feel that it is time it was sending some news from here. No doubt there are anxious eyes scanning the columns from Rough Creek.

The farmers are busy planting tobacco, those who are fortunate enough to have plants. Gardens are looking well, considering the cool weather. Not much fruit. The invitations are out to the wedding of Mr. Chilton Bass to Miss Ethel Elliotte on Wednesday June 12th.

Mrs. Hamlet Deanner, who has been spending several months with friends and relatives here, expects to return to her home in Pageton, W. Va. this week.

Miss Annie Andrews is visiting her cousin, Mrs. James Dupee, of Lynchburg.

Mrs. John Elliotte is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hancock.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrews were guests at Mr. Nollie Adams Sunday.

Miss Bessie Hancock attended the commencement at Blackstone last week. Also Misses Effie and Lizzie Wingfield, of near Red House.

Miss Bessie Berkley has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. D. Goulding, of Keysville.

Mr. Dougie Hancock has returned to his home in West Virginia, after spending a few days with his home people.

Mr. Joshua Harvey, of near the Red House was the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Sam Thackston last Sunday.

Messrs. Wm. Collins and Dougan Hancock spent several days in Richmond last week attending the Reunion.

Southside.

What is more lovely than a day in June, and indeed this old earth does seem at its best in this the month of roses. In spite of the cold rains and chilly winds that seemed to retard the growth of everything, all has worked around alright, on this lovely-lovely morning. The air fragrant with the scent of honeysuckle and roses and the birds singing in the trees, assures us that the "Good old Summer Time" is near once more.

Wild strawberries are plentiful, but not a cherry to be seen, and the small boy will have to look elsewhere for June apples.

There was right much tobacco planted last week. Wheat and oats are looking well, corn is late and some are not through planting.

There has been right much sickness around in the last few weeks.

Mrs. T. A. Caldwell, who has been confined to her bed for the past few weeks, is able to be up again.

Mrs. J. T. Cole and Mr. Ben Cole, who have been very sick since our last letter, are about well again.

Mr. Williams, who is suffering from goitre, is not much improved.

Mr. Geo. W. Coleman, Jr., who has been at home sick with chills and fever, returned to his work at Bellevue this morning.

Mr. G. A. Walton is also at home sick with chills contracted while working near Norfolk.

Mrs. Anna Coleman, who went to Lynchburg to consult Dr. Waugh, returned recently after a pleasant visit to her sons in the Mill City.

Mr. W. F. Coleman returned from a trip to Lunenburg last week.

Mrs. S. P. Coleman and Mr. John S. Plunkett visited relatives near Reedy Springs last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Cawthorn and sisters, Misses Lillie, Alma and Bernice and brother, Mr. Lisy Cawthorn have returned from a most delightful trip to the Exposition.

Mr. Floyd Bush, of Toga, visited relatives here Sunday. His brother, Mr. Joe Bush, who has been living in Appomattox for the past 7 months, has returned to his home in Buckingham.

Glenfall.

So many pleasant letters in the late copies of your paper reminds me that one is due from this point. In the beginning I must thank the Hebron correspondent for the compliment to the Glenfall letters, for though undeserved perhaps, yet it is appreciated, coming as it does from such a sensible source.

There was a big freshet in Bent Creek and adjacent streams. Some damage was done and farm work was hindered to some extent.

Mr. M. Garrett and Miss Mollie Bagley, of Norwood, were quietly married in Richmond on the 1st. We wish them smooth sailing on the "silver sea of matrimony," and welcome the bride to her former neighborhood, where she has a host of friends.

Mr. Mosby Payne, who has been a student at R. M. Academy, is now with his aunts, Misses Ida and Neal Jones.

Mrs. D. M. Anderson attended the Reunion and reports a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. S. G. Payne is now visiting the home of Mr. J. A. Walker in Rockbridge. Her health is poor, but we hope the mountain air will relieve her.

Children's Day will be celebrated at Liberty Chapel Church on next Sunday morning. An attractive program is being prepared.

Farmers are unusually busy. Mr. T. L. Drinkard has planted almost his entire crop of tobacco, and has a fine stand after repeated replanting.

Fried chicken, peas and potatoes are in now so housekeepers need not wear such long faces about dinner time.

We hear of little or no sickness around us.

Miss Lillian Gilbert's school closed on the 26th of May and the children and neighbors here were treated to an abundance of ice cream and cake. The recitations reflect credit on teacher and pupils, and the music by Messrs. Scruggs and Childers, was much enjoyed.

Concord

With pleasure the writer still reports the presence of many guests; while sorrow and sickness still knock at the doors.

Messrs. Alex. Porter, of Georgia, and Ben Porter and daughters, of Danville, are the guests of Mrs. B. C Abbott this week.

Miss Jessie Martin has been quite ill for the past week, but is somewhat better now.

Messrs. J. H. Steele and J. A. Brooks are still slowly improving each day and walking around.

Mr. Tim Judy arrived Saturday, visited his family and returned to his duties Monday afternoon.

Mr. Winfree Price, being very ill, slowly improves.

The home of Mrs. D. H. Cross last Thursday night was the scene of the most delightful occasion of the season, where a few village friends were invited to gather in reverence to her honored guest, Miss Gertrude Spindle, of Christiansburg, Va. Miss Spindle is the beautiful and attractive music teacher, of the B. F. I., Blackstone, Va., and on her way home stopped with Miss Gracie Cross, daughter of the hostess, for a few day's stay. Among the guests present were Mr. Ben Porter and daughter, of Danville, Mrs. W. T. Steele, of Spout Spring, Miss Annie Steele, Miss Rose Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Paxton, Miss Phinizy Abbott, Mr. D. A. Bushong, Miss Helen Hilldrup and Mr. Thos. H. Steele. The beautiful performance on both guitar and piano by Miss Spindle was charming to the hearers; and to this was added the talent of Mrs. Paxton also, accompanied by solos from Mr. Paxton, Miss Porter and Miss Spindle. On Saturday afternoon Miss Spindle left for home in Christiansburg and it was with the profoundest regret that she couldn't prolong her visit.

Three Disasters:

Common with Credit Houses. One said: "I will pay you Saturday night if I live." HE'S DEAD. Another said: "See you tomorrow." HE'S BLIND. Still another: "I hope to pay this week or go to H——" HE'S GONE.

Moral:

Spend your cash with a cash house (Thats us) where you don't have to pay for these misfortunes.

MONTOONA

is now standing at my farm three-quarters of a mile from Appomattox depot. I am attending to him myself this season and hope to give the people better service than they had last Spring. Montoona is not only a prize winner himself but has several colts that have won first prizes at Fairs and Horse Shows in all parts of the State. In breeding to Montoona you get a horse that has all the size you want for farm and they hook up and drive good, and most of them are good saddlers; taking as a whole they make an ideal farm horse, and when you go the market to sell them they have reputation enough to sell themselves, and will always bring from twenty-five to fifty dollars more than a horse whose breeding is not known or that has none. I am not getting over half the money that the party from whom I got him charged, and there is not a horse in the State that has as good breeding that is standing for as small a sum. Any one wishing his pedigree can get it by dropping me a postal. I take pleasure in showing him to you at any time, as well some of his colts.

Machinery in figuring the Panama Canal a thousand times quicker than the shovel that dug the first.

If Machinery produces the L. & M. Paint at 50 times less cost for labor, than if made by hand.

The L. & M. gives the best job to the world, because L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years.

It only requires 4 gallons of this celebrated paint and 3 gallons of Linseed Oil at 60c. per gallon, to paint a moderate sized house.

If any defect exists in L. & M. Paint, will repaint house for nothing.
